

October 2019

We can not believe how this year is just flying by! We have any exciting things taking place over the next month.

We would like to extend an open invitation to our parents to come and read a story during our daily story time at 11:45.

If you would like to come and read a story to the class please let a teacher know.

This Month:

UN Day: We love to celebrate all our family traditions. We will be having a United Nations Picnic and parents are invited! Please sign up for a traditional snack to share with our parents and friends at our UN picnic day. We will also have a sign up sheet for parents to come and teach us something interesting about their home country.

Children's Halloween Picnic and Book Parade: Please sign up to bring a snack for the children to share at their Halloween picnic. Children are encouraged to dress up as their favorite storybook character.

Happy  Halloween
