

Toddler class news letter 2020

The year is almost over and the season for giving and being thankful is fast approaching . This year I would like to introduce a class project . This will be under the theme Family . Each week , a child will get a chance to show the class how they spend time with their families. More information to be posted in the class group. We look forward to an amazing November.

What are we learning about ?

This months themes are :

The farm , Family and Thanks giving.

I would like to invite parents to please come in and contribute to our themes this month. You are welcome to read a story teach us a song or expand further on the themes. Please get in touch with me if you are interested .
