Classroom News

We hope that everyone had a fabulous half term break and all have come back refreshed for the second half of term. It's going to be a busy few weeks with lots going on and we'll keep you informed as we go along. Please save the date for Christmas Carols on Thursday 9th December. Please note we will be open on Thanksgiving this year.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or if we can help in any way.
